

DAY 1
„Cultural life“

Highlights of the city of Magdeburg

Breakfast | Café Flair (Breiter Weg 21)

In the middle of Magdeburg's city centre, you can watch the hustle and bustle over a leisurely breakfast. Café Flair serves a wide variety of delicacies, from vegan and sweet treats to Magdeburg specialities.

Morning | Magdeburg Art Museum Kloster Unser Lieben Frauen

The first discoveries of the city run along the Breiter Weg towards the cathedral square. On the way is the Art Museum - the oldest preserved building in Magdeburg and also the most important exhibition venue for contemporary art and sculpture in Saxony-Anhalt.

Lunch | Green Citadel

Afterwards, a visit to the Green Citadel opposite is well worthwhile. There are daily guided tours of the building including a tower ascent in various languages. Next to the Japanese restaurant Mizu is the Café Alt Magdeburg, The Rikard and a snack bar offer a variety of delicacies.

Seasonal highlights:

Worlds of Lights (Nov-Feb),
DomplatzOpenAir (Jun-Jul),
Kaiser-Otto-Festival (Oct),
Christmas Market (Dec)

Afternoon | City tour, cathedral tour and cathedral museum

We recommend a city tour in the afternoon at 3 pm. This starts at the Alter Markt next to the town hall and also offers an English audio track. Return from the bus tour to the Cathedral Square and the Gothic Magdeburg Cathedral. The cathedral is well worth a visit. Afterwards, you can also visit the Ottonianum Cathedral Museum.

Dinner | Restaurants on the banks of the Schleinufer and Fürstenwall

Not far from the cathedral are the fortress walls and the River Elbe. At the Fürstenwall, the Hoflieferant invites you to savour German delicacies, while a steak house and an Italian restaurant on the Elbe tempt you to dine.

Evening planning | Experience culture

The first evening can come to a relaxed end at one of the many events at Magdeburg's theatre, opera house or Schauspielhaus Theatre. The Moritzhof cultural centre also invites you to enjoy a cosy evening with exciting events in an extraordinary ambience.

DAY 2
„Cultural life“

Along the Elbe and through Buckau

Breakfast | Café am Domfelsen

The second day of discovering Magdeburg begins with the first rays of sunshine. In the centre of the city and right on the Elbe, Café Domfelsen offers a delicious breakfast with a unique view of the river.

Morning | City park and Elbe tugboat „Württemberg“

The morning will take you through the green centre of Magdeburg, the Rotehorn city park. On the way, the Elbe tugboat „Württemberg“ invites you to pay a short visit to the museum. From the Albinmüller observation tower, you can marvel at a phenomenal view over the panorama of Magdeburg and the surrounding area from April to October. The city park is ideal for long walks or a cycle tour along the Elbe and surrounded by nature. Bicycle hire is available in the centre of the park.

Lunch | Elbelandhaus

Not far from the city park and halfway to the next stop is the Elbelandhaus restaurant, which invites you to enjoy delicious meals directly on the Elbe.

Bad weather options:

Cultural History Museum, Cathedral Museum, cinema, theatre, sauna & relaxation at NEMO or Solepark Bad Salzelmen

Afternoon | Buckau and puppet theatre collection

Experience the diversity of the city up close. The artists' neighbourhood of Buckau was once a working-class district of heavy industry and in recent years has developed into a modern area with studios, small shops and history. A special stop can be made at the Puppet Theatre in the Villa p., which houses the largest public collection of puppets in central Germany.

Dinner | Brauhaus Brewckau or Mückenwirt

Once in Buckau, it's worth having dinner there. The Mückenwirt restaurant enchants with its direct view of the Elbe for a cosy get-together. Situated right in the centre of Buckau, the Brewckau brewery also serves beer lovers small snacks in its own brewery.

Evening planning | Volksbad Buckau

In the evening, it's worth visiting the Volksbad, the centre of Buckau. A place for live music, theatre, film screenings, exhibitions, readings, workshops, courses and seminars.

DAY 3
„Cultural life“

History and fortresses

Breakfast | Alex

Water fountains and imposing architecture are the backdrop to the morning breakfast buffet at Alex, a Café, restaurant and bar.

Morning | Museum of Cultural History and Museum of Natural History

Together with the Museum of Cultural History, the Museum of Natural History forms a two-part building on Otto-von-Guericke-Straße in Magdeburg. With a collection of over 380,000 objects, it is one of the largest natural history museums in Saxony-Anhalt.

Lunch | Delicacies in Stadtfeld

Afterwards, it is worth taking the tram to the Stadtfeld district. There are various cafés near Goethestraße and along the small Schrote stream where you can enjoy a snack for lunch.

Alternative:

Elbauenpark with millennium tower, butterfly house, climbing park, petting zoo, summer toboggan run and much more.

Afternoon | Along the fortresses

Strengthened and on a sugar high, the Ravelin fortress in Glacis Park harbours hidden places that are well worth passing by. Following in the footsteps of what was once Prussia's most powerful fortress, you can also explore the mysterious grounds at the cathedral and the Sternbrücke bridge.

Dinner | Leiterstraße

An enjoyable dinner is also a must on this evening. In Leiterstraße, close to the Hundertwasser House, a large selection of restaurants offers incredible variety. In addition to Greek delicacies, there are also Asian, Italian and, above all, Czech specialities to discover.

Evening planning | 7 pm night watchman tour & cosy evening

To round off the last evening of this programme in style, we recommend a night watchman's tour, on which you can experience the historical features of the city of Magdeburg. Afterwards, you can enjoy a relaxed evening at Hasselbachplatz, where bars and pubs invite you to enjoy cool drinks.
