GOOD TO KNOW

In Saxony-Anhalt, there are regional CSD groups in Magdeburg, Schönebeck, Dessau-Roßlau, Salzwedel, Stendal and Halle.

Every LSBTIQ* City Guide mentions the Glacis Park in Magdeburg, a park where the community used to meet in the past.

The most liberal people live in: Saxony-Anhalt! This is the result of the „Queer Support Survey“ in a direct comparison of the approval values of all 16 German federal states. Reason: In almost all categories, the Saxony-Anhalt voted particularly LGBT-friendly. With an average of 4.69 points, the federal state therefore takes first place, followed by Berlin with 4.61 points and Rhineland-Palatinate with 4.59 points.

Magdeburg applies for the EUROPRIDE 2025!
